- No photographs previously exhibited in the Backus Museum will be exhibited again.
- Photographs entered in previous years, but not accepted may not be reentered in the competition.
- If less than 10 entries are received in any category, prizes will be awarded at the judges’ discretion.

The Museum is open Wednesday through Saturday 10 a.m. – 4 p.m. Sunday 12-4 p.m.
Closed Monday and Tuesday.

How will I know if my work is accepted?

If your entry was accepted you will find it listed on the Museum’s website, www.BackusMuseum.com, by no later than 5 PM, Thursday, June 1, 2017. The Museum will also post this information to its Facebook page at A.E. Backus Museum & Gallery.

Museum staff WILL NOT call individual competition participants to inform them of their acceptance status. It is the responsibility of the photographer to look online to see if their work was accepted or to come into the Museum to see the exhibit for themselves. Do not call Museum.

Pieces that were not accepted may be picked up from the Museum starting on Friday, June 2, 2017. No photography may be picked up at the opening reception on Friday, June 9, 2017.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS – Please Read

Why is there a negative requirement for the film Category?

Any entry that does not have a negative or a contact print attached to the back will automatically be entered in a digital category. The negative is to prove that you used film. The negative is returned to the artist. In the event that the piece sells, the negative is removed and returned to the artist. Jiffy Photo will scan your negative and make a contact print for a nominal fee of $2.00.

What the heck is Traditional Raw Photography?

This is the digital category that mirrors traditional film photography, in that the images are not cropped, and the RAW file, like the slide or negative, cannot be altered from the original. This category highlights the skills of traditional photography in the digital world. A copy of the ORIGINAL RAW FILE must accompany the application. No JPEGs or any other type of file will be accepted. Still not sure about this? Call Mike Hinkle at Jiffy Photo (772) 461-0872 for further explanation.

What do I need to know if I am entering in a digital category?

We no longer require a digital file with photographs entered into the 5 main categories. Cropping is allowed as well as basic color and density correction in these 3 categories. However, images determined to have been over-cropped or altered by “Photoshop”, as determined by the judges, will be disqualified if entered in a straight Digital Category. Manipulated images should be entered into the Manipulated Category.

What if the film was digitally processed?

Many commercial photo processors have gone to digital technology. Digital processing alone does not constitute a digital entry. Digital categories apply to any image shot with a digital camera OR any image scanned from a negative or photo and altered on a computer beyond simple cropping for composition as well as basic color and density correction. Confusion over these issues is the reason we need the negative.

When do I enter a digital category?

Enter in one of the Digital Categories if you used a digital camera and there is no more than a basic crop and basic color and density correction, OR if it is a traditional image scanned into a computer from a negative or photograph and manipulated beyond a basic crop and simple basic color and density correction.

What is manipulated Imagery?

This category applied to both film and digital images. If the image is manipulated through Photoshop or a comparable program beyond a basic crop or basic color and density correction it must be entered in Manipulated Imagery. This includes: cloning, dodging, burning or other manipulation. Images taken on 35mm film that incorporate double exposure, time lapse, hand tinting, etc., should also be entered in this category. Special Technique also includes photo collage and three dimensional constructions exclusively utilizing photographic images. Mixed media may not be entered in this competition.

Who can come to the reception?

All photographers will receive an invitation to the exhibit’s opening reception. Whether your work is accepted or not, you are invited to the opening. Please feel free to bring a guest but we request you not invite the entire neighborhood. You MAY NOT pick up photos at the opening reception.

Does it matter when the photograph was taken?

We are placing no restriction on the age of the photograph. Just as long as you took the photograph and comply with all of the other rules. Keep in mind that this is a juried exhibit and the judges will ultimately determine whether your entry qualifies.
